The National Gas Company (NGC) is backing T&T Red Force all the way at the Champion's League Twenty20 (T20) tournament in India. True fans of the team, we look forward to their usual brand of competitive and exciting cricket as they represent the Red, White and Black with pride.

NGC is a major sponsor of T&T Red Force, as well as a primary sponsor of T20 cricket for the last three years. In addition, we support cricket at the community level and are a major contributor to T&T's Youth Cricket Academy.
