

Celebrating the Graduates of NGC's Capacity Building Programme

On Saturday 29th June 2013, The National Gas Company (NGC) - sponsored Capacity Building Programme for the La Brea Police Youth Club, the NGC La Brea Nightingales Steel Orchestra and the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service, culminated with the graduation ceremony at the NESC Training Centre in La Brea.

NGC congratulates the 39 graduates of the programme.

With the three-month programme's focus on strengthening capabilities in areas such as leadership and organisational skills, our contribution symbolises an ongoing commitment to Trinidad and Tobago, with special emphasis on community, and cultural and youth empowerment.

Graduates received Certificates of Participation from Wynda Chandler, Acting Head, Community Relations, NGC; Stephen Williams, Acting Commissioner of Police; Fitzgerald Jeffrey, MP for La Brea; and Richard Braithwaite, Managing Director of Everest Management and Communication Services.

NGC supports community and youth development through programmes in education, arts, sport and community facilities enhancement.
