

NGC retains Energy Calypso Crown

Mama Yo! Dat Is Energy! the 2nd annual calypso competition of the Partners in Energy (PIE), took place last Thursday and saw our own Marlon Edwards copping the first place once more. With a composition entitled “A Nation After God” he retained the challenge trophy and took home the $8,000 first prize. Second place went to bpTT’s Wendy Chadee Vincent who sang “Ah Cyah Take it “ with NEC’s Keigan Bharat “We Love It” taking third place. They took home $6,000 and $4,000 respectively.

The fundraising event offered over $30,000.00 worth of prizes, including $2,500 each for the Best Humorous Calypso, Road March and Best Energy Calypso. Keigan also won the Best Road March crown with his composition. All profits from the event will be donated to the Rape Crisis Society

Over 700 employees and friends from the partner companies gathered at the St John’s Hall to wave and cheer on their contestants who gave the judges Stephanie Lovelace, John Gill, Alvin Daniel, Eric Taylor and Jocelyn Carr Sealey a difficult task. NGC posse of over 100 employees jumped and waved flags for our contestants and received our own share of picong from MC Wendell Etienne. Guest artistes Denise Belfon, JW & Blaze, Benjai, Patrice Roberts, Shal Marshall and Rikki Jai closed the show.

The group Partners in Energy (PIE) comprises Atlantic LNG, BG Trinidad and Tobago, bhp Billiton, bpTT, EOG Resources Trinidad Limited, GDF Suez, The National Gas Company of Trinidad and Tobago Limited and Repsol.
