

Eid Mubarrak from NGC

As day breaks after the sighting of the new crescent moon we journey together as one community with renewed spirits, in thanksgiving for our blessings.

We are each day of history that shaped this country.
We are every culture, ritual and celebration that makes us unique.
We are the driving force of our future progress and, so are you.