

Facing a Global Future: A Petroleum Economist Hydrocarbons Strategy Forum

3 December 2014, Hyatt Regency Hotel, Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago

Petroleum Economist, the National Gas Company of Trinidad and Tobago, and the Ministry of Energy and Energy Affairs have teamed up to co-host a high-level international forum focusing on Trinidad and Tobago and its place in the global energy industry.

Join international industry professionals, analysts and financiers to discuss the major issues facing the country's energy sector and get the inside track on Trinidad and Tobago's future. The forum will include a keynote address from the Honourable Kevin Ramnarine, as well as a chance to hear direct from the team drafting the country's Natural Gas Masterplan.
