Another Youth Development Milestone - NGC Supports Cricket Development

The National Gas Company of Trinidad and Tobago (NGC) contributed TT$1 million towards the T&T Cricket Team's participation in the recent Nokia T20 Cricket Championships in India. NGC will also provide TT$2 million to strengthen and develop community-based cricket in the country during the rest of this year and in 2012. Speaking at the cheque hand-over on Wednesday 12th October, NGC's President, S. Andrew Mc Intosh lauded the effort and achievement of the T&T Cricket Team at the T20 Cricket Championship.

Mr. Mc Intosh said NGC had also provided a cash incentive of TT$300,000.00 to the National Cricket Team participating at the T20 Champions League since they had advanced to the first stage of the Tournament.

During the ceremony, Mr. Mc Intosh noted that NGC's support for cricket development was part of the Company's long association with sport and youth development. Fundamental to the nation's growth was in the area of sport, and according to Mr. McIntosh, support for sport will continue to play a central role in NGC's corporate social responsibility.
