SCARBOROUGH SECONDARY COPS MVPs IN BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Scarborough Secondary School in Tobago copped three prizes for the Most Valuable Player (MVP) during the 2012 Secondary Schools Basketball League, sponsored by The National Gas Company of Trinidad and Tobago (NGC).

Students Shonica Wright was named the Under 15 Girls MVP; Antonio Roach, the Under 17 Boys MVP and Shenelle Thornhill, the Open Female MVP.

Trinity College East student, Stephan Smith was named the Under 15 Boys MVP.

Secondary school students from throughout Trinidad and Tobago who participated in the Basketball League lustily applauded winners during the prize giving ceremony held at the UTT Campus in Valsayn, on Sunday, July 8.

Reminding the audience that NGC has been sponsoring the Secondary Schools Basketball League over the past 12 years, Ms. Wynda Chandler, NGC's Community Relations Officer said a large part of NGC's Corporate Social Responsibility Programme is focused on youth development through sport, the arts and culture, education and training.

"We have established a reputation as an exemplary corporate citizen with a solid commitment to the citizens of our nation. NGC has also been a proud sponsor of other sporting disciplines including football, volleyball, primary schools' netball and hockey," she said.

The state-company has also thrown its support behind local track and field athletes by entering into a partnership with the NAAA for the Open Championships and also with the Trinidad and Tobago Cricket Board to assist in the development of the game at all levels and in all areas of the country.

The full list of winners of the Basketball League is attached to this press release.
